

SOCIETY AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL

BY CHRISTINE WEALAND.
Washington, October 20.—
THE return to Washington in the coming week of Lieutenant Carlo F. Fisher, naval attaché of the Italian Embassy, with his wife, formerly Miss Foster Landon, of St. Louis, will give another American woman a prominent place in diplomatic circles, particularly as the Italian Embassy is one of the most important in the city. Miss Fisher is a native of St. Louis and has been married to her husband for two years. She was formerly a member of the St. Louis Club and has been in the city since her marriage. New Imported China Pieces That Will Make Beautiful Bridal Presents

There are thousands of suggestions in this department of course, but two or three of the latest designs are particularly pleasing:

Chocolate Sets, Berry Dishes, Cracker Jars, Cake Plates, etc. Some decorated in grape designs, others with oranges, and others in autumn leaf effects. Not only unique in conception, but handsome to a degree.

Prices are very moderate, too.

Chocolate Pots and Cracker Jars for $2.25 each. Other articles in proportion.

Dinner Sets, Open Stock Patterns, $20.89

Thin Austrian China, fine border patterns. We can match any piece in the set. These sets are among the best selling articles we have, because they're not ordinary values at the price—but the best in town at $20.89. One hundred and two pieces.

Two Suits That Will Appeal to You

$13.50 This one is of Black Cloth or Black Cheviot, semi-fitting, lined with satin, black velvet collar and cuffs. The skirt is plaited front, back and sides.

$24.50 Gray Mixture Suits, short, tight-fitting jacket, et. lined with gray silk; gray velvet collar. The skirt has seven gores, with inserted side plaits.

These Suits represent the best of values at the two prices. The materials are of the best—the cut and finish excellent, and the general appearance of the Suits will attract you at once.

New Coats. Some for Women; Others for Both Misses and Women

Our Coat buyer was in New York last week and secured the very newest ideas in Fall and Winter Coats. Three of the latest arrivals, as follows:

Novelty Plaid Coats, $9.50.

Long, loose coats, in light grounds, through which runs an old rose stripe, giving a particularly charming effect to the coat. Inlaid velvet collar, trimmed with braid, to match.

Misses' Overcoats, $12.50.

This garment is a beauty and no mistake. Suitable not only for misses, but small women. Maudish mixtures of gray and white checks, through which run red and yellow flakes. Lined throughout with red flannel.

Tight-Fitting Long Coat, $18.

Novelty plaids, of gray, white, black and maroon. One of the most stylish garments in the house at any price. Deep cuffs, fancy buttons, trimmed with strap, velvet collar.

Latest Arrivals in Fall Styles.

Quality is the first consideration in the purchase of a suit. Style and finish.

You'll find these Skirts to combine all three to a marked degree, and at the same time exceptionally reasonable in price. For example:

Panama Skirts, $4.98.

Black, blue and brown, double-plaited back and front; trimmed with straps and buttons to match.

These skirts are such good values and so much sought after that we have reordered them several times.

Black Cheviot Skirts, side plaited, and trimmed with straps. Same price, $4.98.

Novelty Plaid Skirts, $7.50.

Cut very full; side plaited; gray, green and black plaids; attractive and stylish. Exceptional value at the price.

Panama Skirts, $8.50.

Search where you will and you'll not find their superior. Blue, black and brown Panama of the quality. Double box-plaited. Very dressy and serviceable.

A Sale of Lace Curtains.

Each Pair Under Price.

We buy in large quantities and in a great variety of styles. When these assortments get down to one and two pairs of a kind, it's nothing but good business policy to get the odd lots together and cut the prices.

That's what we've done in this case.
